Talk through Summary

GENESIS 1:1END – 1:2START – THE GAP

Gap theorists suggest that (1) the word bara (used in Genesis 1:1, 21, 27) must mean "to create" (i.e.: ex nihilo creation), while the word asah cannot mean "to create," but rather means "to make." Therefore, the original creation was "created"; the creation of the six days was "made" (i.e., "made over"). ...

(2) hayetha (translated "was" in Genesis 1:2) should be rendered "became" or "had become"...

(3) "without form and void" of Genesis 1:2 (tohu wabohu)...

(4) believe that (ref) Isaiah 45:18...Genesis 1:2 can refer only to a judgment brought upon the Earth by God (alt – "angelic wars")...

(5) pre-Adamic creation of both non-human and human forms—a (new) position adopted to account for the fossils

What do we do with Angels?

Created Job 38:4-7 references Angels at creation

Stars problem – note "Morning stars" CF Magi's "star" in Matthew

The Fall

1. Ezekiel 28:11-16, (Isaiah 14:12-15), Revelation 12:3-4a
2. Genesis 3:1+, Matthew 4:1-11(3,11), 8:28-29++

Was there a cataclysmic fall which impacted a pre-adamic Jurassic world? No evidence from Scripture.
